DOMESTIC VIOLENCE WARRANT SWEEP

Madison WI. October 18, 2024—

On Wednesday, October 16, 2024, the Dane County Sheriff's Office took part in a national effort to arrest persons with outstanding family violence warrants.

The Annual Family Violence Apprehension Detail originated in Clackamas County, Oregon in 2002. The annual "SWEEP", as it is commonly referred to, takes place every October for Domestic Violence Awareness Month. The Dane County Sheriff's Office dedicated a team of 8 deputies and detectives to track down individuals with outstanding family violence warrants throughout the county. There were a total of 19 attempts to serve warrants and one person was arrested on a felony warrant for domestic-related 2nd Degree Recklessly Endangering Safety and Disorderly Conduct.

If you are a survivor of domestic abuse, the Sheriff's Office offers information, community resources and safety suggestions on our website at:
